

Business Track[®]

Supporting Information

Get instant access to your business' critical transaction information

You're busy, so convenience and efficiency are of the utmost importance. That's why there's Business Track from Fiserv. It lets you access and manage all key processing information, including credit and debit in a single-consolidated web tool that's super easy to use.

Free features include:

- Card Processing Summary – Displays the last seven days of processing summaries with 25-month archive
- Resources – Displays links to the Fiserv website, training demonstrations, and business glossary
- What's New – Keep informed with latest announcements and time-sensitive information
- eStatements – Go green and download your monthly statements online
- Disputes – Displays total count and amount for outstanding retrievals and chargebacks, saving you time and paperwork
- Account Maintenance – Update statement delivery method, address, and contact information
- ClientLine – Get detailed reporting about your business that enables you to analyze processed expenses and identify opportunities to reduce chargebacks and other office tasks
- Schedule ClientLine – Have reports delivered via email in popular formats (e.g., Excel, PDF, Word, or CSV)
