

ClientLine®

Save time and increase efficiency with real-time access to merchant account information

You have better ways to spend your time than keeping track of card transactions, handling customer questions and reconciling your accounts. That's why there's ClientLine, the quick and easy way to find all the information you need. This online service provides round-the-clock access to your merchant account information. With statements and account history at your fingertips, you're always in the know about your account activity, can streamline operations, and better serve your customers.*

Intuitive tools to stay on top of account activity and customer enquiries

ClientLine delivers the information you need to manage your business today, along with historical analysis that could help improve your business tomorrow. This powerful suite of online tools simplify book keeping, reduces back office tasks, and provides data for improved financial and operational control.

One convenient portal lets you access:

- An overview of recently processed transactions, adjustments, and deposits for simple reconciliation from one access point
- A Bank Deposit Summary, so you can quickly reconcile amounts processed with amounts funded to your business account
- Seventy customised reports. Select which reports you'd like emailed and when you'd like them sent to support your back office tasks.

At-a-Glance

ClientLine is available 24 hours a day from wherever you're working. Full access to all of the robust reporting tools and features is available completely free of charge. ClientLine will save you time and increase the efficiency of your business.
